

God's Love

God's love has no judgment

God throws out His love scent

He sends it out just like a kiss

And when He kissed you, he never missed.

His love shoots from above

Just like a dove

When you look into the eyes of love,

It seems like you're looking into the skies above.

When you're sitting on the pews of love you cannot refuse.

God's love is like a gleaming star

Not like a hurting scar.

Your main dish is Love from above.

Why?

Because you can eat up love, but you can't heat up love.

Glory gladden in October 11th 2013 age 8

His Awakening

Lord God, open my eyes so I can see

And so, I can also be free

Lord God, I don't want to be in cages

And be like one page

In the midst of many pages

For I know your awakening in coming very soon

For your glory is very high

Higher than the moon

It's like, Jesus coming down and He is going to be all around.

Written by Liberty Gladden